

Hockey club in name change shocker?

For those of you who were otherwise indisposed or just couldn't be bothered to stir themselves into attending the AGM. The most significant point in the evening was when it was unanimously voted to dissolve Sawston Men's Hockey Club. Cambridge South Hockey Club rose, Phoenix-like, from the ashes. Figuratively speaking I'm afraid because AGMs never get that exciting.

The minutes of the AGM are attached but to save you the trouble of reading them here is a handy list of important bullet points.

- Club made a loss of £100 due to a payment to the HA and poor payment of subs and match fees.
- 1sts and 2nds both finished 7th and Vets won far too many for their egos to cope with.
- Colin Warboys is too arrange more pre-season friendlies.
- Training – no change (Tuesday night 8-9 Leys school for those who got lost last season).
- Teas and Match Fees – No change
- Subs – Increasing a little I'm afraid, to cover last seasons losses.
- Changes to committee, a few. Steve Fleck has stepped down as letters man to be replaced by myself, Will B. Martin Grove gallantly steps into the space left by Matt Murray as Mr Gutter Press. Owen Howell becomes 1sts Vice Cap'n, because he has a senior management figure.

You can read all the other grisly details for yourselves.

CLUB MATCHES

Roger Craigen has thoughtfully arranged four games over the summer against Stevenage and Thyrssus (but why we should have to deal with a STD is beyond me). The first of these have been and gone; the initial one cancelled due to a lack of interest, whilst on Tues 2nd June Thyrssus overcame CSHC, in their inaugural game, 5-2. Some good individual performances were turned in, but of special note was the appearance of our Large Ginger Kommandant in a role that involved something more than standing still. Besides running he also failed to score any own goals, making it a red-letter evening. The remaining summer games are:

Stevenage, Wednesday 24 June (Away)
Thyrssus, Thursday 2 July (Away)

Contact Roger (Home 893906, Work 423740).
Remember – Good turnout means Good Game.
Be there.

CLUB DINNER

Big vote of thanks to Mick Beasley for his splendid organisation again this year. Clubman of the Year was Steve Fleck for 10 long (very long as I'm beginning to suspect) years of secretarial duties.

RESUMPTION OF TRAINING

Time, day and venue haven't changed for next season. As soon as there is a set date you will all be informed as soon as possible.

ADVERTISEMENTS

With the next newsletter, probably early August, you will all be equipped with two posters each. Get them distributed around your work place, place of education, supermarkets, etc. The more players we have in the club the better it becomes and consequently the more we can get out of it.

If you know of anyone who wasn't at the AGM and hasn't received a newsletter/copy of the minutes then get them to contact me, as I haven't got their address. Cheers.
